a sub-fund of Schroder International Selection Fund SICAV

Class C Distribution USD (LU0845699924)

This fund is managed by Schroder Investment Management (Luxembourg) S.A., which is a member of the Schroders Group.

Objectives and Investment Policy

Objectives

To provide a long term return of capital growth and income in renminbi terms, primarily through investment in a portfolio of bonds and money-market instruments denominated in renminbi.

Investment Policy

At least two-thirds of the fund (excluding cash) will be invested in bonds and similar instruments issued in onshore or offshore renminbi (CNY/CNH) or in another currency which will be hedged to the renminbi. The bonds will be issued by governments, government agencies and companies which may or may not be established or incorporated in mainland China.

The fund provides an opportunity for offshore investors to access China's fixed income market. The fund seeks to add value by using a variety of active investment strategies, including security and sector selection, as well as interest rate strategies.

The fund may also invest in other financial instruments and hold cash on deposit. Derivatives may be used to achieve the investment objective and to reduce risk or manage the fund more efficiently.

Benchmark

This share class is managed with reference to the HSBC Offshore (CNH) Renminbi Investment Grade Bond Total Return (RMB) financial index. The manager invests on a discretionary basis and is not limited to investing in accordance with the composition of this benchmark.

Dealing Frequency

You may redeem your investment upon demand. This fund deals daily.

Distribution Policy

This share class pays income received from the fund's investments to you monthly.

Risk and Reward Profile

The risk and reward indicator

The risk category is based upon the fund's risk target and there is no guarantee that the fund will achieve it.

The fund's risk category is not guaranteed to remain fixed and may change over time.

A fund in the lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment.

The fund is in this category because it can take higher risks in search of higher rewards and its price may rise and fall accordingly.

The category also reflects that this share class is in a different currency than the fund currency.

Other particular risks

Credit risk / debt securities: A security issuer may not be able to meet its obligations to make timely payments of interest and principal. This will affect the credit rating of those securities.

Counterparty risk / derivatives: The fund enters into financial derivative transactions. If the counterparty were to default, the unrealised profit on the transaction and the market exposure may be lost.

Special country risk / China: Changes in China's political, social or economic policies may significantly affect the value of the fund's investments. China's tax law is also applied under policies that may change without notice and with retrospective effect. The renminbi (CNY) is not a freely convertible currency and may be significantly affected by China's foreign exchange controls, which may affect the value of the fund's investments and its ability to meet redemption requests upon demand.

Market risk / emerging markets & frontier: Emerging markets will generally be subject to greater political, legal, counterparty and operational risk.

Operational risk / third parties: The fund's operations depend on third parties and it may suffer disruption or loss in the event of their failure.

The ongoing charges figure shown here is an estimate of the charges because the fund was launched recently and did not have a year's expenses upon which to calculate the figure. The fund's annual report for each financial year will include detail on the exact charges made.
