db x-trackers FTSE 100 SHORT DAILY ETF

Share Class: 1C (ISIN: LU0328473581), (WKN: DBX1AV), (Currency: GBP)

a sub fund of db x-trackers. The Fund is managed by DB Platinum Advisors, part of the Deutsche Bank Group.

Objectives & Investment Policy

The aim is for your investment to reflect the performance of the FTSE 100 Short Index which provides the opposite performance of the FTSE 100 Total Return (TR) Index on a daily basis plus a rate of interest. This means that the level of the Index should rise when the reference index falls and fall when the reference index rises on a daily basis. The interest rate added to the Index level is based on double the rate at which banks in Great Britain lend to each other on an overnight basis (as calculated by the Wholesale Market Brokers' Association in Great Britain) earned on the short position. The reference index reflects the performance of the shares of the largest 100 UK companies listed on the London Stock Exchange. The companies are selected on the basis that they have the largest combined value of shares as compared to other companies on the stock exchange. The reference index is calculated on a total return basis which means that all dividends and distributions are reinvested in the shares after tax. The composition of the Index is reviewed quarterly.

To achieve the aim, the Fund will enter into a financial contract (derivative) with Deutsche Bank to swap most subscription proceeds for the return on the Index.

No dividends will be paid on your shares.

You may redeem your shares on demand on a daily basis.

Risk and Reward Profile

The risk and reward category is calculated using historical data which may not be a reliable indicator of the Fund's future risk profile.

The risk and reward category may shift over time and is not a target or a guarantee.

The lowest category (i.e. Category 1) does not mean a risk-free investment.

The Fund is in Category 6 because of the high range and frequency of price movements (volatility) of the underlying investments referenced by the Fund.

The following are additional risks not covered by the risk and reward category.

The Fund will enter into a derivative with a counterparty (initially Deutsche Bank). If the counterparty fails to make payments (for example, it becomes insolvent) this may result in your investment suffering a loss.

Deutsche Bank and its related companies may act in several roles in relation to the Fund such as promoter, distributor, derivative counterparty and management company which may involve conflicts of interest.

The Fund is not guaranteed and your investment is at risk. The value of your investment may go down as well as up.

"FTSE" is a trademark of the London Stock Exchange Plc and The Financial Times Limited and is used by FTSE International Limited ("FTSE") under licence. The Fund is licensed by FTSE to redistribute the FTSE 100 Short Index. All rights in and to the FTSE Index vest in FTSE and/or its licensors. All information is provided for reference only. Neither FTSE nor its licensors shall be responsible for any error or omission in the FTSE Index.

The Index is constructed to track the performance of a negative (known as a short) position on the reference index meaning that the level of the Index should rise when the reference index falls and fall when the reference index rises. The Index is designed to do this on a daily basis only which should not be equated with seeking a short position for periods longer than a day. The performance of the Fund over periods longer than one day may not be inversely proportional or symmetrical with the returns of the reference index.

The Fund is intended for institutional and financially sophisticated investors who wish to take a very short term view on the reference index e.g. for day trading purposes.

The financial contract (known as a derivative) used to gain exposure to the Index may be adjusted to reflect certain expenses in relation to taxes and/or buying, selling, borrowing, financing or custody costs associated with the counterparty's hedging position. These index replication costs may lead to your investment suffering losses.

More information in relation to risks in general may be found in the "Risk Factors" section of the prospectus.
