What is this product?

TYPE OF PRODUCT

The product is a Sub-Fund of Long Term Investment Fund (SIA), an Undertaking for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities (UCITS) incorporated as a variable capital investment company (SICAV) under the laws of Luxembourg.

TERM

The Sub-Fund is established for an unlimited duration. However, the Management Company may decide to close this product under certain circumstances.

OBJECTIVES

Objectives and investment policy

This Sub-Fund aims to provide long-term capital appreciation, primarily through investment in a portfolio of worldwide equity securities relating to natural resources.

The Sub-Fund will mainly invest in equity and equity related securities (including convertible bonds) issued by companies worldwide which are involved in the natural resources sector and in structured products (as described in the prospectus) linked to the performance of the abovementioned securities. This includes companies whose main business is amongst others to produce, extract, refine, market natural resources, such as but not limited to: energy, mining or agro-alimentary sectors.

The choice of investments will neither be limited by geographical area (including emerging markets), nor in terms of currencies in which investments will be denominated. However, depending on financial market conditions, a particular focus can be placed in a single country and/or in a single currency and/or in a single natural resource.

The Sub-Fund may also invest up to 10% of its net assets in other open-ended undertakings for collective investment. The Sub-Fund may also invest in structured products, as further detailed in the prospectus, including structured products without embedded derivatives, correlated with changes in commodities (including precious metals) with cash settlement. These investments may not be used to elude the investment policy of the Sub-Fund.

Within the limits specified in the prospectus, the Sub-Fund may invest in Russia, through among others securities listed on the MICEX-RTS.

Derivatives For hedging and for any other purposes, the Sub-Fund may use financial derivative instruments within the limits and descriptions set out in the prospectus. The use of derivative instrument may increase leverage and imply additional costs and risks.

Benchmark The Sub-Fund is actively managed. The index S&P Global Natural Resources Net TR Index EUR is used for the calculation of the relative VAR. The Sub-Fund does not track the index and can deviate significantly or entirely from the benchmark index.

Dividend Policy This Class is cumulative. Dividend distributions are not planned.

Share Class Currency The currency of the Class is USD.

The recommended holding period of this product is determined to allow sufficient time for this product to reach its objectives and avoiding short term market fluctuations.

The return of the product is determined using the Net Asset Value (the "NAV") calculated by the Central administration. This return depends mainly on the market value fluctuations of the underlying investments.

INTENDED RETAIL INVESTORS

The product is suitable for retail investors with limited knowledge of the underlying financial instruments and no financial industry experience. The product is compatible with investors who may bear capital losses and who do not need capital guarantee. The product is compatible with clients looking for growing their capital and who wish to hold their investment over 5 years.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk indicator

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years.

The actual risk can vary significantly if your cash in at an early stage and you may get back less.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you. The essential risks of the investment fund lie in the possibility of depreciation of the securities in which the fund is invested.

Performance scenarios

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back. What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted.

The unfavourable, moderate, and favourable scenarios shown are illustrations using the worst, average, and best performance of the product over the last 10 years. Markets could develop very differently in the future.

Recommended holding period (RHP): Example investment		5 years USD 10,000
		If you exit after 1 year	If you exit after 5 years
Scenarios
Minimum	There is no minimum guaranteed return. You could lose some or all of your investment.
Stress scenario	What you might get back after costs Average return each year	USD 2,660 -73.4%	USD 420 -47.0%
Unfavourable scenario	What you might get back after costs Average return each year	USD 4,400 -56.0%	USD 6,320 -8.8%	This type of scenario occurred for an investment in the product between March 2015 and March 2020.
Moderate scenario	What you might get back after costs Average return each year	USD 9,780 -2.2%	USD 10,510 1.0%	This type of scenario occurred for an investment in the product between December 2016 and December 2021.
Favourable scenario	What you might get back after costs Average return each year	USD 19,220 92.2%	USD 14,790 8.1%	This type of scenario occurred for an investment in the product between February 2016 and February 2021.

The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances.

What happens if FundPartner Solutions (Europe) S.A. is unable to pay out?

The Management Company is not making any payment to you in relation to this Sub-Fund and you would still be paid in case of a default from the Management Company.

The Sub-Fund's assets are held with a separate company, the Depository, so the Sub-Fund's ability to pay out would not be affected by the insolvency of the Management Company. However, in the event of the Depository's insolvency, or its delegates, the Sub-Fund may suffer a financial loss. However, this risk is mitigated to a certain extent by the fact the Depository is required by law and regulation to segregate its own assets from the assets of the Sub-Fund. The Depository will also be liable to the Sub-Fund or its investors for any loss arising from, among other things, its negligence, fraud or intentional failure properly to fulfil its obligations (subject to certain limitations).

If the Sub-Fund is terminated or wound up, the assets will be liquidated and you will receive an appropriate share of any proceeds but you may lose part or all of your investment.

There is no compensation or guarantee scheme protecting you from a default of the Depository.

What are the costs?

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

Costs over time

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product and how well the product does. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

We have assumed:

- In the first year you would get back the amount that you invested (0% annual return). For the other holding periods we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate scenario.

- USD 10,000 is invested

Investment of USD 10,000	If you exit after 1 year	If you exit after 5 years
Total costs	USD 836	USD 2,024
Annual cost impact (*)	8.4%	3.6%

(*) This illustrates how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example it shows that if you exit at the recommended holding period your average return per year is projected to be 4.6% before costs and 1.0% after costs.
