It is the responsibility of any person outside Ireland wishing to make an application hereunder to satisfy himself as to full observance of the laws of the relevant territory in connection therewith, including the obtaining of any governmental or other consents which may be required or other formalities needing to be observed or transfer or other taxes requiring to be paid in such territory.

The Directors of the Company have taken all reasonable care to ensure that the facts stated herein are true and accurate in all material respects and that there are no other material facts the omission of which would make misleading any statement herein, whether of fact or of opinion. After publication of an annual report of the Company, this Prospectus should be accompanied by, and read in conjunction with, the latest annual report and accounts of the Company.

The Articles of the Company and each published annual report and accounts will be available for inspection at the registered office of the AIFM. Notwithstanding that each Fund of the Company is and will be treated as bearing its own liabilities, the Company will remain liable as a whole to third parties for all its liabilities.

Authorisation

The authorisation of this Company by the Central Bank is not an endorsement or guarantee of the scheme by the Central Bank nor is the Central Bank responsible for the contents of this Prospectus. The Central Bank shall not be liable by virtue of its authorisation of this Company or by reason of its exercise of the functions conferred on it by legislation in relation to the Company for any default of the Company. Authorisation does not constitute a warranty by the Central Bank as to the creditworthiness or financial standing of the various parties to the Company.

Selling Restrictions

The Shares of the Company that have been issued may be offered for sale or sold to the public only in countries where such an offer or such a sale is permissible. Unless the AIFM, or a third party authorised by it, has obtained permission to do so from the local regulatory authorities and such permission can be presented by the AIFM, this Prospectus does not constitute a solicitation to purchase the Company Shares, nor may the Prospectus be used for the purpose of soliciting the purchase of the Company's Shares.

This Prospectus may not be distributed in the United States or to United States Persons. The distribution of this Prospectus and the offering of the Shares may also be restricted in other jurisdictions.

By subscribing for and/or holding Shares, investors are deemed to: (a) represent that they are not "United States Persons," or subscribing for or holding Shares as nominee(s) for or on behalf of any such person(s); (b) agree and acknowledge that they may not transfer the Shares or any interest therein (including by means of a swap or other derivative transaction) to a "United States Person" or make a transfer of the Shares or any interest therein within the United States; and (c) represent that they have not been solicited to purchase Shares or any interest therein, including by means of a swap or other derivative transaction while present in the United States or have obtained the funds to be utilised for such purchase from any "United States Person;" which representations, agreements and acknowledgments will be deemed to be repeated by an investor at all times that it holds any Shares or interest therein. For this purpose, "United States" means the United States, its states, territories and possessions, and any enclave of the United States government, its agencies or instrumentalities and "United States Person" encompasses any person that is not a "Non-United States Person" or is a "U.S. person" within the meaning of or for the purpose of: (i) Rule 4.7 of the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC"); or (ii) the swaps provisions of the U.S. Commodity Exchange Act, as added by Title VII of the U.S. Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and as interpreted in accordance with the Interpretive Guidance and Policy Statement Regarding Compliance with Certain Swap Regulations, published by the CFTC on July 26, 2013 or any other interpretive rules or guidance issued by the CFTC or staff of the CFTC; in each case, as the same has been or may from time to time be amended or replaced. An investor must immediately notify the AIFM if any such representation made or deemed to be repeated by it is incorrect or misleading in any respect, or if it has breached any such agreement and acknowledgment, identifying the relevant misrepresentation and/or breach, as applicable, and the Shares affected thereby.

This Prospectus may be used for sales purposes only by persons who have express written authorisation from the AIFM (granted directly or indirectly via authorised sales agents) to do so. Declarations or representations by third parties that are not contained in this Prospectus or in the documentation have not been authorised by the AIFM. The documents are available to the public at the registered office of the AIFM.

The Company has been authorised as a qualifying investor alternative investment fund ("QIAIF") under the Central Bank's AIF Rulebook. Accordingly, the Company has been authorised by the Central Bank to market solely to Qualifying Investors. Further, while the Company is authorised by the Central Bank, the Central Bank has not set any limits or other restrictions on the investment objectives, the investment policies or on the degree of leverage which may be employed by the Company, nor has the Central Bank reviewed this Prospectus. The Company must comply with the aim of spreading investment risk in accordance with section 1386(1)(a) of the Act. Investment in the Company should not constitute the sole or the main investment of an investor's portfolio. An investment in the Shares has the potential for above average risk and is therefore suitable only for Qualifying Investors who are in a position to take such risk. The Risk Factors for an investor to consider are set out on pages 3 to 8 herein.

Responsibility

The Directors of the Company, whose names appear under "Management and Administration" herein, are the persons responsible for the information contained in this document. To the best of the knowledge and belief of such Directors (who have taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case), the information contained in this document is at its date in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information. The Directors accept responsibility accordingly.

Potential investors should consult, and must rely on, their own professional tax, legal and investment advisers as to matters concerning the Company and their investment in the Company.

Prospective investors should not treat the contents of this Prospectus as advice relating to legal, taxation, investment or any other matters. Prospective investors should inform themselves as to: (a) the legal requirements within their own jurisdictions for the purchase, holding or disposal of Shares; (b) any applicable foreign exchange restrictions; and (c) any income and other taxes which may apply to their purchase, holding or disposal of Shares or payments in respect of Shares.

Prospective investors should be aware that investment in the Company carries an above-average degree of risk and the price of Shares may go down as well as up. The Company is only suitable for investment by investors who are aware of and understand the risks involved and are in a position to take such risks.

With the exception of investors who qualify as “Knowledgeable Employees” (as defined herein), the minimum aggregate subscription amount is €100,000, or its equivalent in such other currencies in which Shares may be denominated. However, a higher minimum subscription amount may be set by the Directors in respect of any Fund and details of such higher amount shall be set out in the applicable Leaflet. Furthermore an investment in the Company may only be made by an investor who meets the Qualifying Investor criteria and is aware of the risks involved in the proposed investment and of the fact that inherent in such investments is the potential to lose all of the sum invested.

Investor Responsibility

Investors should note that since transferable securities may depreciate as well as appreciate in value, no assurance can be given by the Company, the Directors or the AIFM or any of the persons referred to in this Prospectus that the Company will attain its objectives. The price of Shares, in addition to the income therefrom, may decrease as well as increase. Accordingly, an investment should only be made where the investor is in a position to sustain any loss on his or her investment. The difference at any one time between the sale and redemption price of the Shares of any Fund means that the investment should be regarded as medium to long term.

Within the EU, the Shares may only be marketed to Professional Investors pursuant to the AIFM’s marketing passport under AIFMD, unless the Member State in question permits, under the laws of that Member State, AIFs to be sold to other categories of investors and this permission encompasses investors set out in categories (b) and (c) of the definition of “Qualifying Investor” on page 41 of this Prospectus.

Risk Factors

Investors’ attention is drawn to Section 1.8 of this Prospectus entitled “Risk Factors”.

If you are in any doubt regarding the action you should take, please consult your stockbroker, bank manager, solicitor, accountant or other professional adviser.

1. THE COMPANY

1.1 Introduction

The Company is an investment company with variable capital organised under the laws of Ireland as a public limited company authorised pursuant to Part 24 of Companies Act 2014. It was incorporated on 24 October 2007 with registration number 448114. Its object, as set out in Clause 2 of the Company's Memorandum, is the collective investment of its Funds in property with the aim of spreading investment risk and giving members of the Company the benefit of the result of the management of its funds.

The Company is structured as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds. The assets of each Fund shall belong exclusively to that Fund, shall be recorded in the books and records maintained for the Fund as being held for that Fund and separately from the assets of other Funds and shall not be used to discharge directly or indirectly the liabilities of or claims against any other Fund and shall not be available for any such purpose.

The Company currently has one sub-fund, namely the Metzler China Equity RMB Fund.

With the prior approval of the Central Bank, the Company may from time to time create such additional Funds as the Directors may deem appropriate, certain of which may be established as either open-ended or limited liquidity sub-funds. Details of any such Fund or Funds created in the future shall be as set out in the applicable Leaflet in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank. Each Leaflet shall form part of, and should be read in conjunction with, this Prospectus.

In accordance with Article 19 of the Articles, with the prior approval of the Central Bank, the Directors may create different Classes of Shares within each Fund. The Directors may differentiate between the different characteristics of Shares within a Fund including, without limitation, as regards the rights, commission charges, currency, entry and exit prices or other characteristics. A separate pool of assets is not maintained for each Class of Share within a Fund. Details of the different Classes of Shares within a Fund and the different characteristics applicable to each Class shall be set out in the relevant Leaflet in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank. The creation of further different Classes of Shares within a Fund will be notified to, and cleared in advance by, the Central Bank.

The currency designation of each Fund will be the Euro unless otherwise set out in a Leaflet.

1.2 Investment Objective and Policies

The assets of each Fund will be invested in accordance with the investment objectives and policies of that Fund as set out in the applicable Leaflet. The Company and its Directors, in consultation with the AIFM, are responsible for the formulation of the investment objectives and policies of each Fund and any subsequent change to these objectives and policies. Each Fund is subject to the general investment restrictions as described below. Restrictions on any borrowing and any additional investment restrictions relevant to each Fund will be as set out in the applicable Leaflet.

A change to the investment objective or material changes to the investment policy of each Fund may not be effected without the prior written approval of all Shareholders or without approval on the basis of a majority of votes cast at a general meeting. A reasonable notification period will be provided by the Company to enable Shareholders to redeem their shares prior to implementation of these changes.

1.3 Investment Restrictions

The Company is categorised as a QIAIF and is governed by the AIF Rulebook applicable to this category of fund. The Central Bank has not set any limits or other restrictions on the investment objectives, the investment policies or on the degree of leverage which may be employed by the Company. However, under the Act, each Fund must manage its assets with the aim of spreading investment risk.

A Fund may not invest more than 50% of its Net Asset Value in any one unregulated collective investment scheme unless this is in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank. Furthermore, a Fund may not invest more than 50% of its Net Asset Value in another investment fund which itself invests more than 50% of its net asset value in another investment fund. Where a Fund invests in another collective investment scheme managed by the AIFM or the Investment Manager or by an associated or related company of either, or cross invests in another Fund, the management company of such collective investment scheme will waive any preliminary/initial/redemption charge which it would normally charge.

Neither the Company, nor the AIFM on behalf of the Company, may acquire any shares carrying voting rights of any issuer if such voting rights would enable it to exercise a significant influence over the management of any issuer.

The investments restrictions in respect of a Fund shall be set out in the applicable Leaflet and such limits shall apply at the time of purchase of the investments. If such limits are exceeded for reasons beyond the control of the Company, or as a result of the exercise of subscription rights, the Company shall adopt as a priority objective the remedying of that situation taking due account of the interests of all Shareholders.

1.4 Exposure Limits

A Fund may be required, from time to time, to post margin or collateral with a counterparty (including but not limited to derivatives, repo or stocklending counterparties or entities who may provide certain financing or brokerage services in respect of a Fund) (each a “Financing Counterparty”) in order to secure the Fund’s obligations to that Financing Counterparty. Generally, such margin or collateral will be required to be transferred outside the Fund’s depositary network. The Fund may also have other exposures to such Financing Counterparty (for example, deposits or direct investments). The maximum aggregate exposure of a Fund to any single Financing Counterparty shall not exceed 40% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund in relation to any such Financing Counterparty.

In circumstances where a Fund is required to post margin or collateral to any such Financing Counterparty in the manner contemplated above, and the margin is held by the Financing Counterparty on a proprietary basis, rather than as sub-custodian to the Company, the Company will ensure that at the time of entry into such transactions any such Financing Counterparty (or their parent company) shall have a minimum credit rating of A-2 (or its equivalent successor rating), as assigned by Standard & Poor’s, or an equivalent short-term credit rating as determined by an internationally recognised rating agency. Nothing herein shall prevent such Financing Counterparty from being appointed as a sub-custodian of the Company and in such circumstances, the assets will be held subject to the Central Bank’s rules in relation to the custody of assets.

The Company will be responsible for complying with the limits referred to above and the Depositary will enquire into such exposure levels as part of its normal review processes. Furthermore, all positions will be marked to market daily in order to comply with the exposure limits.

1.5 Borrowing

The borrowing / leverage limits in respect of any Fund will be set out in the applicable Leaflet.

1.6 Use of Derivative Instruments

The Company may, for the purpose of efficient portfolio management or for investment purposes, enter into a variety of exchange-traded and over-the-counter (OTC) derivative transactions including, but not limited to, spot contracts, forward contracts, contracts for difference, swaps, put options, call options and futures in respect of any reference item, rate or index. The Company may also purchase or sell spot or forward contracts for the purpose of providing protection against exchange rate risk.

In order to secure its obligations to any counterparty, the Company may be required to post assets or cash by way of margin or collateral. Unless otherwise stated in a Leaflet for a particular Fund, such margin or collateral arrangements, shall comply with Section 1.4 of this Prospectus.

1.7 Dividend Policy

The Accounting Date of the Company is 31 March in each year. Once the accounts for the period ending on the relevant Accounting Date have been finalised, the Directors will determine whether and to what extent dividends shall be paid in respect of each Fund and relevant proposals will be made to the annual general meeting of the Company. The Directors also have the power under the Articles of Association to declare interim dividends. For the avoidance of doubt, subject to there being distributable profits available, interim dividends declared and paid by the Fund may be in respect of previous financial years.

The dividend for any particular class of Shares in a Fund shall be payable out of profits of that Fund available for distribution relating to those classes designated as distribution share classes. Unless otherwise stated in a Leaflet for a particular Fund, profits, for these purposes, may be comprised of net income (income less expenditure) and net realised and unrealised gains (realised and unrealised gains less realised and unrealised losses) attributable to such share classes. However, if specifically stated in the Leaflet for a particular Fund, the Directors may elect to pay dividends out of net income only and shall not take net gains into account when determining any dividend that might be declared. Income for these purposes shall include, without limitation, interest income and dividend income and any other amounts treated as income in accordance with the accounting policies of the Company laid down from time to time.

Where the Directors determine that a dividend is payable, it will be payable in respect of those classes of Shares within a Fund that have been designated as distributing Share Classes.

Dividends, when declared, will be paid within four months after the relevant Accounting Date by bank transfer to the Shareholders. Any dividend unclaimed after six years from the date when it first became payable shall be forfeited automatically and will revert to the relevant Fund without the necessity for any declaration or other action by the Company.

1.8 Risk Factors

Potential investors in the Company should understand that all investments involve risks. The following list of risk factors does not purport to be a complete enumeration or explanation of the risks involved in an investment in the Company. Prospective investors are strongly urged to consult their own professional advisors before deciding to invest in the Company:-

General

The investments in a Fund are subject to normal market fluctuations and other risks inherent in investing in securities. The value of investments and the income from them and therefore the value of, and income from, the Shares in a Fund may go down as well as up and an investor may not get back the amount he invests. An investor who redeems Shares after a short period may, in addition, not realise the amount originally invested in view of any subscription charge or redemption charge made on the issue or redemption of Shares and accordingly the investment should be viewed as medium to long term.

Currency Risks

A Fund's assets may, unless otherwise noted, be invested in securities denominated in currencies other than the relevant currency of such Fund and any income received by such Fund from its investments will be received in the currencies of such investments, some of which may fall in value against the relevant currency of such Fund. Each Fund will compute its Net Asset Value and make any distributions in the denomination of the Shares; there is therefore a currency exchange risk which may affect the value of the Shares to the extent that the relevant Fund makes investments in currencies other than the relevant currency of the Fund.

Default Risk

Investments in fixed income securities, specifically those which are rated below Investment Grade, are subject to the risk that the issuer could default on its obligations and the relevant Fund could sustain losses on such investments. Each Fund will seek to limit such risks by in-depth credit research and careful securities selection but there can be no assurance that the Fund will not acquire securities with respect to which the issuer subsequently defaults.

Below Investment Grade debt securities are speculative and involve a greater risk of default and price changes due to changes in the issuer's creditworthiness. The market prices of these debt securities fluctuate more than Investment Grade debt securities and may decline significantly in periods of general economic difficulty.

The value of a Fund's assets may be affected by uncertainties such as changes in government policies, taxation, currency repatriation restrictions and other developments in the law or regulations of the countries in which the Fund may invest.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity is the ability to sell the investments that a Fund holds within a reasonable amount of time at approximately the price at which the Fund has valued the investments, which relies on the willingness of market participants to buy and sell investments. Certain investments may be difficult to purchase and sell, particularly during adverse market conditions, because there is a limited market for the investment or there are restrictions on resale. If a Fund holds illiquid securities, it may be unable to take advantage of market opportunities or it may be forced to sell other, more desirable, liquid securities or sell illiquid securities at a loss if it is required to raise cash to satisfy redemption requests.

It is likely that below Investment Grade securities may offer less liquidity than Investment Grade securities. Accordingly, there may be no readily available market for the timely liquidation of certain investments made by a Fund in such investments.

The AIFM will monitor the liquidity of the investments held by a Fund and will seek to ensure that, together with the use of borrowing and redemption deferrals, if these are deemed necessary, redemption requests are always capable of being met as they fall due. In this regard, the AIFM will maintain an adequate and documented liquidity management policy in accordance with the requirements of AIFMD. The AIFM's liquidity management policy will include such procedures as are necessary to enable the AIFM to assess and monitor the liquidity risk to which each Fund and the Company is or may be exposed (including conducting regular stress tests under normal and exceptional liquidity conditions) and to ensure that the liquidity profile of the investments of each Fund comply with the Company's underlying obligations.

Limited Liquidity

An investment in the Company may provide limited liquidity since a secondary market in Shares is not expected to develop and certain investment positions in which the Company has an interest may be illiquid. The Company may be invested in restricted or non-publicly traded securities. This could prevent the Company from liquidating unfavourable positions promptly and subject the Company to substantial losses. This could also impair the Company's ability to distribute redemption proceeds to a redeeming Shareholder in a timely manner.

Yield and Market Risk

Investments in fixed income securities entail certain risks including adverse income fluctuation associated with general economic conditions affecting the fixed income securities market, as well as adverse interest rate changes and volatility of yields. When interest rates decline, the market value of a Fund's fixed income securities can be expected to rise. Conversely, when interest rates rise, the market value of the Fund's fixed income securities can be expected to decline.

Investment Risk

Potential investors should note that the investments of the Company are subject to market fluctuations and there can be no assurance that any appreciation in value will occur. The value of investments and the income from them, and therefore the value of, and income from the Shares, can go down as well as up and an investor may not realise the amount originally invested. Changes in exchange rates between currencies may also cause the value of the investments to diminish or increase.

Investment in the Company should be viewed as a long term investment.

Exchange Rate Risk

Certain investments of the Company may be denominated in currencies other than the currency of the relevant Fund. Although the AIFM will seek to manage the Company's foreign exchange positions, there is no assurance that this can be performed effectively.

Counterparty and Broker Credit Risk

The Company will be exposed to the credit risk of the counterparties or the brokers and dealers and exchanges through which, it deals, whether it engages in exchange-traded or off-exchange transactions. The Company may be subject to risk of loss of its assets held by a broker in the event of the broker's bankruptcy, the bankruptcy of any clearing broker through which the broker executes and clears transactions on behalf of the Company, or the bankruptcy of an exchange clearinghouse.

Derivatives Risk

Price movements of forward contracts, futures contracts, options, contracts for difference and other derivative contracts in which the Company's assets may be invested are influenced by among other things, interest rates, changing supply and demand relationships, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programs and policies of governments, and national and international political and economic events and policies. In addition governments from time to time intervene, directly and by regulation, in certain markets, particularly those in currencies and interest rate related futures and options. Such intervention often is intended directly to influence prices and may, together with other factors, cause all of such markets to move rapidly in the same direction because of, among other things, interest rate fluctuations. Moreover, since there is generally less government supervision and regulation of foreign stock exchange and clearing houses than in more developed markets, the Company may also be subject to the risk of the failure of the exchanges on which its positions trade or of their clearing houses, and there may be a higher risk of financial irregularities and/or lack of appropriate risk monitoring and controls.

Qualifying Investor Scheme

As the Company is deemed to be an investment scheme marketed solely to Qualifying Investors under the AIF Rulebook, the Central Bank has not set any limits or other restrictions on the investment objective, the investment policies or on the degree of leverage which may be employed by the Company.

The Company is not intended to be a complete investment programme for any shareholder. It is designed only for investors who are able to bear the risk of an investment, including the risk of losing the entire amount invested plus accrued profits. There can be no assurance that the Company will achieve its investment objective. The value of Shares may go down as well as up and there can be no assurance that on redemption or otherwise investors will receive back the amount originally invested.

Credit Risk

Credit risk refers to potential losses due to default, such as an issuer's failure to pay coupons or principal of a bond. Another type of credit risk is the risk of settlement failure, that is, the failure of a counterparty to deliver or pay for securities.

Valuation Risk

The Company may undertake transactions with or through a counterparty related to the AIFM. Due to the nature of certain investments of the Company, the counterparty may be the only party who can provide a valuation of such investments. As such, it may not always be possible to obtain a valuation from an independent third party. If such a situation arises, the Company will seek to ensure that the counterparty will execute the transactions on normal commercial terms which are negotiated at arms' length.

Leverage Risk

The Company's possible use of borrowing, leverage or derivative instruments may result in certain additional risks. Leveraged investments, by their nature, increase the potential loss to investors resulting from any depreciation in the value of such investments. Consequently, a relatively small price movement in the security underlying a leveraged instrument may result in a substantial loss to the Company.

Market, Economic and Regulatory Changes

Changes in market and economic conditions, tax or other laws or regulations or accounting standards and/or government intervention in markets may have an adverse effect on the Company's investments and on Share value. The likelihood of these types of adverse changes and the extent to which they may affect the business of the Company cannot be accurately predicted.

Technology Risk

Financial and business organisations and individuals doing business with the Company could be adversely affected if the computer systems used by its service providers or other organisations with which any of them deal do not properly process and calculate transactions as a result of systems or technologies failures.

In addition to the risks set out above, any risks specific to a particular Fund will be as set out in the applicable Leaflet.

The foregoing list of risk factors does not purport to be a complete enumeration or explanation of the risks involved in an investment in a Fund. Prospective investors should read this entire Prospectus and consult with their own advisers before deciding to invest in a Fund.

Cybersecurity Risk

Cybersecurity breaches may occur allowing an unauthorised party to gain access to assets of the Funds, Shareholder data, or proprietary information, or may cause the Company, the AIFM, the Investment Manager, or the Depositary to suffer data corruption or lose operational functionality. The Funds may be affected by intentional cybersecurity breaches which include unauthorised access to systems, networks, or devices (such as through “hacking” activity); infection from computer viruses or other malicious software code; and attacks that shut down, disable, slow, or otherwise disrupt operations, business processes, or website access or functionality. In addition, unintentional incidents can occur, such as the inadvertent release of confidential information (possibly resulting in the violation of applicable privacy laws). A cybersecurity breach could result in the loss or theft of Shareholder data or funds, the inability to access electronic systems, loss or theft of proprietary information or corporate data, physical damage to a computer or network system, or costs associated with system repairs. Such incidents could cause the Company, the AIFM, the Investment Manager or the Depositary, or other service providers to incur regulatory penalties, reputational damage, additional compliance costs, or financial loss. Consequently, Shareholders may lose some or all of their invested capital. In addition, such incidents could affect issuers in which a Fund invests, and thereby cause a Fund’s investments to lose value, as a result of which investors, including the relevant Fund and its Shareholders, could potentially lose all or a portion of their investment with that issuer.

Data Protection Risk

In order to maintain security and to prevent processing in infringement of Data Protection Law, the AIFM and the Company where acting as a “data controller” are each required to evaluate the risks inherent in the processing and implement measures to mitigate those risks, such as encryption. Such measures are required to ensure an appropriate level of security, including confidentiality, taking into account the state of the art and the costs of implementation in relation to the risks and the nature of the personal data to be protected. Potential investors and Shareholders should be aware that certain data security risks can arise by processing of personal data, such as accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data transmitted, stored or otherwise processed which may in particular lead to physical, material or non-material damage. There may be instances where processing operations by the AIFM and the Company are likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of potential investors or Shareholders, however, the relevant data controller will be responsible for the carrying out of a data protection impact assessment to evaluate, in particular, the origin, nature, particularity and severity of any such risk. A personal data breach may, if not addressed in an appropriate and timely manner, result in physical, material or non-material damage to potential investors or Shareholders such as loss of control over their personal data or limitation of their rights, discrimination, identity theft or fraud, financial loss, damage to reputation, loss of confidentiality of personal data protected by professional secrecy or any other significant economic or social disadvantage to the natural person concerned and/or to the Company.

2. FEES, COSTS AND EXPENSES

2.1 AIFM Fee

Unless otherwise stated in a Leaflet for a Fund, a management fee of up to 2.5% per annum of the Net Asset Value of each Fund is payable to the AIFM. The management fee is calculated by reference to the Net Asset Value of the relevant Fund and accrues on each Business Day and is payable quarterly in arrears. The AIFM is entitled to be reimbursed out of the assets of the Company the expenses incurred by it in the performance of its duties as AIFM of the Company.

2.2 Investment Manager Fee

The AIFM will be liable to pay the annual fees and charges of the Investment Manager. The Investment Manager may also be entitled to receive a performance fee in respect of any Fund and such fee, if applicable, will be payable out of the assets of the relevant fund. The details of any such performance fee shall be set out in the applicable Leaflet. The Investment Manager shall be liable to pay the annual fees and charges of any sub-investment manager or investment adviser appointed by the Investment Manager in respect of a Fund, as set out in the applicable Leaflet.

2.3 Depositary Fee

No commissions, discounts, brokerage or other special terms have been granted by the Company in relation to the Shares. However, on any issue of Shares the AIFM may, out of its own funds, pay commission on applications received through brokers and other professional intermediaries.

Remuneration Policy

An effective remuneration policy of the AIFM (the “Remuneration Policy”) has been put in place by the AIFM which complies with AIFMD and the ESMA Guidelines on sound remuneration policies under AIFMD (the “Guidelines”).

The AIFM believes that the Remuneration Policy is in line with the strategy, objectives, values and interests of the AIFM, the Company, the Funds and the Shareholders and includes measures to avoid conflicts of interest. In particular, the Remuneration Policy provides that the remuneration of the identified staff should not contain any variable or performance related element and accordingly it promotes sound and effective risk management.

The Depository was incorporated to provide depository and custodial services to collective investment schemes such as the Company. Under the terms of the Depository Agreement the Depository has full power to delegate the whole or any part of its custodial functions to sub-custodians. The liability of the Depository will not be affected by the fact that it has entrusted to a third party some or all of the investments of the Company for safe keeping. The parties agree that the Central Bank considers that in order for the Depository to discharge its responsibility under the AIF Rulebook, the Depository must exercise care and diligence in choosing and appointing sub-custodians so as to ensure they have and maintain the expertise, competence and standing appropriate to discharge their responsibilities as sub-custodians. The Depository must maintain an appropriate level of supervision over the sub-custodians and make appropriate inquiries from time to time to confirm that their obligations continue to be competently discharged. This does not purport to be a legal interpretation of the AIF Rulebook.

The AIFM will inform investors prior to their investment in the Company of any arrangement made by the Depository to contractually discharge itself of any liability. The AIFM will also inform Shareholders of any changes with respect to the Depository's liability without delay.

The Depository Agreement is subject to the laws of Ireland and the AIFM and the Depository submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Ireland.

Either party may terminate the Depository Agreement by giving not less than 90 days notice in writing to the other party.

The Investment Manager may appoint sub-investment managers and investment advisers to assist it with its duties as investment manager in respect of the Company.

4. ISSUE AND REDEMPTION OF SHARES

4.1 Form of Shares

Shares in each Fund will be issued in registered form. Written confirmation of entry in the Shareholder Register will be despatched to the Shareholder named in the application form or in the case of joint holdings to the Shareholder who is first named in the Shareholder Register. Share certificates shall not be issued.

4.2 Issue of Shares

The Shares in each Fund will be available for subscription on any Dealing Day, except where there is a suspension of issues and redemptions. As the Company has been authorised by the Central Bank as a QIAIF, only Qualifying Investors who meet the Minimum Initial Subscription amount may apply.

Applications for Shares should be submitted to the Company in original form, by electronic means or by fax by the Dealing Deadline either

- directly;
- through its authorised agent (namely, B. Metzler seel. Sohn & Co. KGaA for onward transmission to the AIFM); or
- through a Recognised Clearing System (for onward transmission to the AIFM or authorised agent).

Applications received after the Dealing Deadline may be deemed, at the discretion of the AIFM, to be received on the next Business Day. Initial subscriptions may be processed upon receipt of a faxed or electronic instruction with the original application form (and supporting money laundering documentation) to follow promptly.

In the case of initial or subsequent applications submitted by electronic means or by fax, it shall not be necessary for the Company to subsequently receive the original application form provided that the Directors are satisfied that the appropriate controls and procedures are in place to comply with applicable anti-money laundering / counter terrorist financing legislation and to ensure that any risk of fraud associated with the processing of transactions based on such means are adequately mitigated.

Unless otherwise set out in a Leaflet for a Fund, Shares will normally be allotted on the following Dealing Day, subject to the Company's acceptance of the application form and receipt within three Business Days of cleared funds (or such longer or shorter period as the Directors may determine) in the relevant currency. Any application received after the Dealing Deadline may be deemed to have been received on the following Business Day and may, at the discretion of the AIFM, be processed on the next Dealing Day. In the event that the applicant does not effect settlement for the subscription of Shares within a reasonable time, being ten Business Days from the Dealing Deadline or such other time as the Directors may determine from time to time, the Company shall not issue, or if issued shall cancel the Shares issued in respect of such an application. Save during a period when issues or redemptions of Shares are suspended a subscription application shall not, without the consent of the Company, be capable of being withdrawn once given.

The Subscription Price is the Net Asset Value per Share, subject to the possible addition of the subscription charge referred to in the Leaflet of the Fund in question and a rounding (which may be upwards) of the resulting total by not more than 1%, at which the Shares will be allotted on the Dealing Day.

The relevant Net Asset Value per Share for these purposes is the Net Asset Value per Share calculated by the AIFM as at the Valuation Point in respect of the relevant Dealing Day.

If the Directors and the Depositary are satisfied that the terms of an exchange are not such as are likely to result in any material prejudice to existing Shareholders, the Directors may, in their absolute discretion, allot Shares on terms providing for settlement to be made by the vesting in the Depositary on behalf of the Company of any securities, bonds or other assets of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situate that may be acquired by the Company in conformity with the AIF Rulebook and the investment objective and investment policy and any investment restrictions of each Fund as determined from time to time by the Directors. The value of the securities to be vested in the Company shall be determined by the Directors on the same basis as that provided for the Articles or determining the Net Asset Value of a Fund. For the avoidance of doubt, Clause 14(6) of the Articles provides that, in determining the number of Shares to be issued in exchange for the vesting in the Depositary on behalf of the Company of securities, bonds or other assets, the Subscription Price for such Shares shall be determined in accordance with the provisions setting out how the Subscription Price is determined generally. For the avoidance of doubt, the number of Shares issued shall not exceed the number that would have been issued for the cash equivalent.

Where any subscription monies are not an exact multiple of the Subscription Price per Share of the Fund applied for, a fraction of a Share may be issued at the discretion of the Directors.

The right is reserved by the Directors to reject any application in whole or in part. The issue of Shares may be suspended in the circumstances mentioned in Section 4.7 of this Prospectus.

Any reference in this Prospectus to the registered address of a Shareholder shall be to his address as shown in the Shareholder Register of the Company, or in the case of joint Shareholders, the address shown therein for the first named of such Shareholders.

Subscription Prices will be available on request from the AIFM, whose determination of the Subscription Price shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error.

A subscription charge payable to the AIFM to cover distribution costs up to 5% of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Shares may be charged on subscription. The subscription charge for each Fund shall be specified in the Leaflet for such Fund.

4.3 Redemptions of Shares

Shares may be redeemed on any Dealing Day save in circumstances where Directors have declared a temporary suspension of redemptions.

In order to redeem all or part of his holding of Shares, a Shareholder must deliver a request for redemption to the Company in original form, by electronic means or by fax by the Dealing Deadline either:

- directly;
- through its authorised agent (namely, B. Metzler seel. Sohn & Co. KGaA for onward transmission to the AIFM); or
- through a Recognised Clearing System (for onward transmission to the AIFM or authorised agent). Any redemption request received after the Dealing Deadline may be deemed, at the discretion of the AIFM, to be received on the next Business Day.

Notwithstanding the right of Shareholders to request redemption of their holding, certain sub-funds may be established with limited rights of redemption, subject to conditions set down by the Central Bank.

No redemption payment may be made until all documentation required by the AIFM (including any documents in connection with anti-money laundering and counter terrorist financing procedures) and the appropriate anti-money laundering procedures have been completed and, where necessary the original subscription application form has been received. Redemption Requests (as defined below) received in original form, by electronic means or by fax will only be processed where payment is made to the account of record.

Shares will be redeemed on the next Dealing Day. The next Dealing Day is normally the Business Day following the receipt of the application for redemption, unless otherwise determined by the AIFM.

The Redemption Price is the Net Asset Value per Share, subject to the possible deduction from the resulting amount of a redemption charge referred to in the Leaflet of the respective Fund and a rounding (which may be downwards) of this amount by not more than 1%, at which the Shares will be redeemed on the Dealing Day.

The relevant Net Asset Value per Share for these purposes is the Net Asset Value per Share calculated by the AIFM as at the Valuation Point in respect of the relevant Dealing Day.

Unless otherwise agreed by the Directors and the AIFM, a request for redemption must be made by delivery to the Company or one of its authorised agents of a request in such form as the Directors may from time to time determine (a "Redemption Request") specifying the monetary amount or number of Shares of each Fund to be redeemed. Unless a lower number of Shares is specified, a Redemption Request will be taken to apply to all the Shares held by the Shareholder or represented by the appropriate written confirmation of entry in the Shareholder Register.

The Company is not bound to redeem on any Dealing Day more than 10% of the Net Asset Value of any one Fund. If total requests for redemption on any Dealing Day exceed that limit, the Directors may in their discretion refuse to redeem any Shares in excess of 10%. Any request for redemption on such Dealing Day shall be reduced rateably and the redemption requests shall be treated as if they were received on each subsequent Dealing Day until all the Shares to which the original request related have been redeemed.

The Redemption Price of such Shares may be satisfied by the Company paying cash or, provided that the Directors and the Depositary are satisfied that the terms of any exchange shall not be such as are likely to result in any material prejudice to any remaining Shareholders, by the Company making an in specie distribution, on such terms and conditions as the Directors and the AIFM may specify, to such Shareholder of securities equalling the aggregate Redemption Price (or together with such cash payments when aggregated with the value of the securities being distributed as are equal to such Redemption Price). Any such redemption in specie must be with the consent of the redeeming shareholders unless the redemption request represents 5% or more of the Net Asset Value of the Fund in which instance such redemption in specie may be at the sole discretion of the Company. In such circumstances, the Company shall, if requested by the redeeming shareholder, be required to sell the relevant assets on behalf of that Shareholder but the cost of such sale shall be borne by that shareholder.

Where redemption of Shares is to be satisfied by an in specie distribution of securities held by the Company, the Depositary shall transfer such securities as the AIFM or its authorised agents shall direct to the Shareholder as soon as practicable after the relevant Dealing Day. The asset allocation in respect of any redemption in specie is subject to the approval of the Depositary. All costs and risks of such distribution shall be borne by such Shareholders. For the avoidance of doubt, the number of Shares distributed must not exceed the number that would have been distributed for the cash equivalent.

Unless otherwise set out in a Leaflet for a Fund, the redemption proceeds will be paid within 10 Business Days of the day on which a Redemption Request is received. Redemption proceeds will be payable in the currency in which the Shares are designated.

Redemption Prices will be available on request from the AIFM, whose determination of the Redemption Price shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error.

A redemption charge payable to the AIFM of up to 2% of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Shares may be charged on any redemption. Details of any other future redemption charges applicable to a Fund shall be specified in the Leaflet for such Fund.

4.4 Compulsory Redemption of Shares

Shares may be compulsorily redeemed or transferred if it comes to the notice of the AIFM that those Shares are being owned directly or beneficially by any person who is in breach of any law or requirement of any country or governmental authority or by any person who shall belong to or be comprised within any class of persons from time to time determined by the Directors.

The Directors shall have the power upon 30 days' notice to Shareholders of a Fund to terminate that Fund on any Dealing Day (i) if the Net Asset Value of the Fund falls to a level that, in the absolute discretion of the Directors, makes the Fund cease to be economically viable or (ii) for any other reason that the Directors determine, in their absolute discretion, is in the best interest of the Shareholders of a particular Fund as a whole. The Directors are also entitled to terminate any Fund with the sanction of a special resolution of the holders of the Shares relating to that Fund.

4.5 Conversion of Shares

Shareholders may on any Dealing Day, convert all or part of their holding of Shares of any class (the "Original Class") into Shares of another class (the "New Class") by giving notice to the Company, either directly or through its authorised agent, not later than the Dealing Deadline. Any conversion request received after the Dealing Deadline may be deemed, at the discretion of the AIFM, to be received on the next Business Day.

Conversion takes place in accordance with the following formula:-

- NSH is the number of Shares of the New Class;
OSH is the number of Shares of the Original Class specified in the conversion notice;
RP is the Redemption Price of a Share of the Original Class;
SP is the Subscription Price of a Share of the New Class.

The right to convert may be suspended in the circumstances mentioned in Section 4.7 of the Prospectus, and is conditional on the Company having sufficient available unissued share capital to enable the conversion to be implemented in the manner determined by the Directors.

Where a Shareholder converts from one Fund to a different Fund and the Shares in the different Fund are designated as Shares of different Classes, Shares in the different Fund will be issued as Shares of the relevant Class, as applicable (whether or not the Shares in the original Fund were designated as Shares of different Classes). Where the Shares of the original Fund are designated as Shares of different Classes, and the Shareholder converts to a different Fund (the Shares of which are not designated as Shares of different Classes) the Shares will be issued of the single Class in the new Fund.

No charge shall be levied by the Company upon the Shareholder for any conversion of all or part of such Shareholder's holding of Shares of the Original Class into Shares of another class.

4.6 Publication of the Price of the Shares

Except where the determination of the Net Asset Value has been suspended, in the circumstances described below, the subscription and redemption prices per Share shall be made available to Shareholders promptly on request and, in any case, shall be made available at the registered office of the AIFM on each Dealing Day. It is not an invitation to subscribe for, redeem or convert Shares at that Net Asset Value.

4.7 Suspension of Issues, Redemptions and Conversions

The Directors may at any time declare a temporary suspension of issues, redemption or purchases and conversions of Shares or of any one or more classes of Shares:-

- (a) during any period when any regulated market on which a substantial part of the investments of the relevant Fund are quoted, listed or dealt in is closed otherwise than for ordinary holidays;
- (b) during any period when dealings on any such regulated market are restricted or suspended;
- (c) during the existence of any state of affairs as a result of which disposal of the investments or other assets of the relevant Fund cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be effected normally or without seriously prejudicing the interests of the holders of that class of Shares;
- (d) during any breakdown in the means of communication normally employed in determining the Net Asset Value of the relevant Fund or when, for any other reason, the value of any assets of the relevant Fund cannot be promptly and accurately ascertained; or

- (e) during any period during which the Depositary is unable to repatriate funds required for making payments due on redemption of Shares or during which the realisation of investments or other assets or the transfer of funds involved in such realisation cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be effected at normal prices or normal rates of exchange.

Forthwith after the commencement of any suspension the Directors shall immediately and in any event within the same Business Day notify in writing the Central Bank and the competent authorities in the Member States in which the Company markets its Shares that such a suspension has been made.

Notice of any such suspension in respect of any class of Shares will be given to any Shareholder tendering his Shares for redemption and will also if possible be published in such publication(s) as the Company has caused Subscription Prices and Redemption Prices to be published in during the preceding six months, and notice will be similarly given upon the termination of such suspension.

Unless withdrawn, applications for subscription, redemption and conversion will be considered on the first Dealing Day following the termination of a suspension.

4.8 Settlement of Transactions through Euroclear/Clearstream, Luxembourg

Any transaction involving Shares referred to in this Section 4 may be effected through Euroclear or Clearstream provided that any such transaction shall also conform to the rules and procedures for the time being of Euroclear and Clearstream respectively.

4.9 Prevention of money laundering

Measures aimed towards the prevention of money laundering may require a detailed verification of the applicant's identity. Depending on the circumstances of each application, a detailed verification might not be required where (i) the applicant makes the payment from an account held in the applicant's name at a recognised financial institution or (ii) the application is made through a recognised Intermediary. These exceptions will only apply if the financial institution or Intermediary referred to above are within a country recognised by Ireland as having equivalent anti-money laundering regulations.

By way of example an individual may be required to produce a copy of a passport or identification card duly certified by a notary public, together with evidence of his/her address such as a utility bill or bank statement and date of birth. In the case of corporate applicants this may require production of a certified copy of the certificate of incorporation (and any change of name), memorandum and articles of association (or equivalent), the names, occupations, dates of birth and residential and business addresses of all directors.

In the context of money laundering prevention and in compliance with Irish and European regulations applicable thereto, any investor will have to establish its identity to the Company and/or to the AIFM. Such measures shall be evidenced when subscribing for Shares and if necessary on an ongoing basis. Redemption or transfer of Shares will only be executed after the identity of the investor and/or the beneficial owner has been established to the complete satisfaction of the Company and/or to the AIFM.

The AIFM reserves the right to request such information as is necessary to verify the identity of an applicant. In the event of delay or failure by the applicant to produce any information required for verification purposes, the AIFM may refuse to accept the application and subscription monies. In the event of delay or failure by the applicant to produce any information required for verification purposes, the AIFM will not be in a position to process the transaction and must reject the application and subscription monies for so long as such information remains outstanding. In such circumstances, the AIFM may also be required to discontinue an existing business relationship with an existing customer who, for example, has invested in other funds managed by the AIFM in the event that the AIFM does not receive such documents and/or information as may be required to meet its legal obligations.

5. VALUATION OF FUNDS

The Net Asset Value of Shares of each class will be determined, in the currency of designation of a Fund, by the AIFM in accordance with the Articles of Association, and as summarised below, as at the Valuation Point for such Business Day. In order to determine the Net Asset Value per Share, the value of all securities and other assets held in the relevant Fund, as adjusted to take account of accrued income, less all the liabilities and accruals attributable to that Fund, will be divided by the total number of Shares of that class in issue at the Valuation Point.

- (a) The Net Asset Values for each Fund (or attributable to each Class within that Fund) shall be determined separately by reference to the Fund appertaining to that class of Shares and to each such determination the following provisions shall apply.
- (b) In respect of each Dealing Day the Net Asset Value of each Fund (and any Class within such Fund) shall be determined and shall be equal to the value as at the Valuation Point in respect of that Dealing Day of all the assets, less all the liabilities, of that Fund. The Net Asset Value attributable to each Class of Share of a Fund is divided by the number of Shares of such Class in issue to give the Net Asset Value attributable to each Share of such Class in that Fund.
- (c) The assets of a Fund shall be deemed to include:
 - (i) all cash in hand or on deposit, or on call including any interest accrued thereon;
 - (ii) all bills, demand notes, promissory notes and accounts receivables;
 - (iii) all bonds, certificates of deposit, shares, stock, units in collective investment schemes, debentures, debentures stock, subscription rights, warrants, options and other investments and securities owned and contracted for, (other than rights and securities issued by the Company);
 - (iv) all stock and cash dividends and cash distributions which the Directors consider will be received by the Company in respect of the Fund but which have not yet been received by it but have been declared payable to stockholders of record on a date before the day as of which the assets are being valued;
 - (v) all interest accrued on any interest bearing securities forming part of the Fund; and
 - (vi) all prepaid expenses relating to that Fund and a proportion of any prepaid expenses relating to the Company generally, such prepaid expenses to be valued and defined from time to time by the Directors.
- (d) Subject to the Act any expense or liability of the Company may be amortised over such period as the Directors (with the approval of the Auditors) may determine (and the Directors may at any time and from time to time determine with the approval of the Auditors to lengthen or shorten any such period), and the unamortised amount thereof at any time shall also be deemed to be an asset of the Company.

- (e) Assets shall be valued as follows:
- (i) cash shall be valued at face value (plus accrued interest to the relevant Valuation Point) unless, in the opinion of the Directors, any adjustment is necessary in order to reflect the fair value thereof;
 - (ii) save as otherwise herein provided investments or assets listed, quoted or dealt in on a regulated market shall be valued, in the case of bonds, at closing bid price and, in the case of equities, at closing mid-market price in each case on the regulated market on which these assets are traded or admitted for trading (being the regulated market which is the sole or in the opinion of the Directors the principal regulated market on which the investment in question is listed, quoted or dealt in). If, in case of bonds, the closing bid prices, or, in the case of equities, the closing mid-market prices are not representative in the sole opinion of the Directors of the value of the assets, the value will be the probable realisation value, estimated with care and in good faith by such competent person as may be appointed by the Directors and approved for the purpose by the Depositary.

For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that activity occurs in any recognised market on which substantial assets (as determined by the Directors) of any Fund are listed, quoted or dealt in on a weekday or weekdays falling between the date of any Dealing Deadline and the relevant Dealing Day then the closing mid-market / bid price to be applied in determining the Net Asset Value of such assets shall be such closing mid-market / bid price at the Valuation Point in respect of the first weekday following the Dealing Deadline on which activity occurs in the regulated market in question;

- (iii) forward foreign exchange contracts will be valued in accordance with paragraph (f) below, or, alternatively by reference to freely available market quotations. If such freely available market quotations are used, there is no requirement to have such prices independently verified or reconciled to the counterparty valuation on a monthly basis. As foreign exchange hedging may be utilised for the benefit of a particular class of Shares within a Fund, its costs and related liabilities and/or benefits will be reflected in the Net Asset Value per class for Shares of such class;
- (iv) exchange traded futures and options contracts (including index futures) shall be valued at the settlement price as determined by the market in question. If such market price is not available, the value shall be the probable realisation value estimated with care and in good faith by the Directors or such other competent person approved for the purpose by the Depositary;
- (v) derivative instruments dealt in on a market shall be calculated at the settlement price as determined by the market in question, provided that where it is not the practice of the relevant market to quote a settlement price or if such settlement price is not available for any reason, such value shall be the probable realisation value estimated with care and in good faith by the Company or a competent person approved for the purpose by the Depositary;
- (vi) where derivative instruments are not dealt in on a market, their value shall be the daily quotation from the counterparty and which will be verified on a weekly basis by a party independent of the counterparty and approved for the purpose by the Depositary. In accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, such contracts may also be valued using an alternative valuation, such value determined using an alternative valuation methodology which will be provided by the Company or a competent person appointed by the Company and approved by the Depositary. Where such contracts will be valued using an alternative valuation:

- (a) the alternative valuation will be produced on a daily basis;
 - (b) the Company will follow international best practice and adhere to the principles on valuation of OTC instruments established by bodies such as IOSCO and AIMA;
 - (c) the alternative valuation is that provided by a competent person appointed by the Company and approved for the purpose by the Depositary, or a valuation by any other means provided that the value is approved by the Depositary; and
 - (d) the alternative valuation must be reconciled to the counterparty valuation on at least a monthly basis. Where significant differences arise these must be promptly investigated and explained.
- (vii) at any time when prices are not available in respect of assets listed, quoted or dealt in on a regulated market in each case on the regulated market on which these assets are traded or admitted for trading (being the regulated market which is the sole or in the opinion of the Directors the principal regulated market on which the investment in question is listed, quoted or dealt in), the value of the assets will be the probable realisation value estimated with care and in good faith by such competent person as may be appointed by the Directors and approved for the purpose by the Depositary;
- (viii) any investments or assets not listed, quoted or dealt in on a regulated market shall be valued at the probable realisation value as estimated with care and in good faith by such competent persons as may be appointed by the Directors and approved for the purpose by the Depositary;
- (ix) securities listed or traded on a regulated market but acquired or traded at a premium or at a discount outside or off the relevant market may be valued, taking into account the level of premium or discount at the date of the valuation with the approval of a competent person (approved for the purpose by the Depositary). The competent person (having been approved for the purpose by the Depositary) shall ensure that the adoption of such a procedure is justifiable in the context of establishing the probable realisation value of the security;
- (x) the value of units or shares or other similar participation in any collective investment scheme shall be valued at the latest bid price or, if unavailable, the last available net asset value as published by the collective investment scheme;
- (xi) notwithstanding the foregoing the Directors may permit some other method of valuation to be used for any particular asset if they consider that such valuation better reflects the fair value of that asset, such other method to be approved for such purpose by the Depositary;

- (xii) the value of an asset may be adjusted by the Directors where such an adjustment is considered necessary to reflect the fair value in the context of currency, marketability, dealing costs and/or such other considerations which are deemed relevant.
- (f) (6) Currencies or values in currencies other than in the currency of designation of a particular Fund shall be converted into the currency of designation of such Fund at the rate which the Directors, after consulting with, or in accordance with a method approved by, the Depositary, deems appropriate in the circumstances.
- (g) For the purpose of valuing the Company's assets as aforesaid the Directors may rely upon the opinions of any person(s) who appear to them to be competent to value assets by reason of any appropriate professional qualification or of experience of any relevant market. Such persons must be approved for the purpose by the Depositary.
- (h) The liabilities of a Fund shall be deemed to include all liabilities (including charges incurred on the acquisition and realisation of investments and such operating expenses referred to in Article 21(5)(c) of the Articles of Association that the Directors consider to be attributable to a particular Fund, and such amount as the Directors determine to provide in respect of contingent liabilities) of whatsoever kind and nature except liabilities represented by Shares in the Company. In determining the amount of such liabilities the Directors may calculate any liabilities on an estimated figure for yearly or other periods in advance and accrue the same in equal proportions over any such period. Where the Directors have created different Classes of Shares within a Fund and have determined that each Class will incur different levels of fees (the details of which shall be set out in a Leaflet to this Prospectus), the Net Asset Value per Class shall be adjusted in order to reflect such different levels of fees payable in respect of each Class.
- (i) Where Classes of Participating Shares denominated in different currencies are created within a Fund and currency hedging transactions are entered into in order to hedge any relevant currency exposure, such transactions will be clearly attributable to the relevant class of Participating Shares and any costs and gains/losses of the hedging transactions will accrue solely to that Class of Shares. While it is not intended, overhedged or under-hedged positions may arise due to factors outside the control of the Company. If such circumstances do arise, the Company will keep positions under review to ensure that the leverage in respect of the relevant Fund does not exceed the limits set out in the relevant Leaflet for the Fund. Furthermore, the Company will ensure that materially over-hedged or under-hedged positions will not be carried forward month to month. This strategy may substantially limit Shareholders of a Class of Participating Shares from benefiting if the currency in which that Class of Shares is denominated falls against the base currency of the relevant Fund and/or the currency in which the assets of the Fund are denominated.
- (j) The Net Asset Value of each Fund calculated pursuant to the Articles of Association, may be certified by a Director of the Company or by any other person authorised to give such certificate by the Directors and any such certificate shall be binding and conclusive as to the Net Asset Value of such Fund in the absence of manifest error.

6. PREFERENTIAL TREATMENT

Pursuant to AIFMD, the AIFM will at all times ensure that Shareholders are treated fairly and in accordance with the terms of the Fund or, if applicable, the Class of Shares within a relevant Fund, in which a Shareholder has invested. The AIFM will ensure such fair treatment of Shareholders through its decision-making procedures and organisational structure which identifies any preferential treatment, or the right thereto, afforded to Shareholders. The AIFM will ensure that any such preferential treatment does not result in an overall material disadvantage to other Shareholders. In addition, the AIFM will monitor the terms of any side arrangements (if any) entered into with Shareholders in relation to their investment in the Company to seek to ensure the fair treatment of all Shareholders.

In this regard, subject to the AIFM's obligation to treat investors fairly, the AIFM may enter into side arrangements with certain investors (including founding investors or strategic investors) that include terms in respect of the relevant investor's investment in any Fund and/or grant that investor differential treatment or the right thereto (e.g. fee rebates or side letters). Details of such terms, together with details of any economic or legal links which such investor may have with the Company or the AIFM, will be made available to investors before they invest in such Fund.

7. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The AIFM, the Investment Manager, the Depositary and their affiliates, officers and shareholders (collectively the "Parties") are or may be involved in other financial investment and professional activities which will on occasion cause conflict of interest with the management of this Company. This includes the management of other funds, purchases and sales of securities, investment management counselling, brokerage services and serving as directors, officers, advisers, or agents of other funds or other companies, including companies in which the Company may invest. In particular, it is envisaged that the AIFM and the Investment Manager may be involved in managing and/or advising other investment funds and accounts which may have similar or overlapping investment objectives to or with the Company. In addition, it is envisaged that the Investment Manager may, from time to time, be requested to provide valuations in respect of certain of the Company's assets in the calculation of the Net Asset Value of the Company. It should be noted that any fees payable to the Investment Manager will increase as the value of the Company increases. Each of the Parties and the Directors of the Company will respectively ensure that the performance of their respective duties will not be impaired by any such involvement that they may have and that any conflicts which may arise including the allocation of investment opportunities will be resolved fairly.

Any transaction carried out with the Company by the AIFM, the Investment Manager, the Depositary and/or associated or group companies of these will be carried out as if effected on normal commercial terms negotiated at arms length. Transactions will be in the best interests of the Shareholders.

Transactions permitted will be subject to:-

- (a) Certified valuation by a person approved by the Depositary (or the Directors in the case of a transaction involving the Depositary) as independent and competent; or
- (b) execution of the relevant transaction on best terms on an organised investment exchange or other regulated market in accordance with the rules of such exchange or markets; or where (a) and (b) are not practical, the transaction is executed on terms which the Depositary is (or in the case of a transaction involving the Depositary, the Directors are) satisfied conform to normal commercial terms, negotiated at arms length and is in the best interests of Shareholders.

In addition, it is envisaged that some or all of the Directors may hold directorships of other investment funds which may have similar or overlapping investment objectives to or with the Company. Each of the Directors of the Company will respectively ensure that the performance of their respective duties will not be impaired by any such involvement that they may have.

In the event that any conflict of interest does arise, the Directors will endeavour to ensure that any such conflict is resolved fairly and in the best interests of the Shareholders.

8. TAXATION

The following summary of Irish tax matters relevant to investors subscribing for, purchasing, holding, switching or disposing of Shares in the Company is based on Irish law and the published practices of the Revenue Commissioners of Ireland at the date of this Prospectus. This summary does not consider all aspects of taxation which may be relevant to a prospective Shareholder in light of that Shareholder's particular circumstances. The information given does not constitute legal or tax advice and prospective investors should consult their own professional advisers as to the implications of their subscribing for, purchasing, holding, switching or disposing of Shares under the laws of the jurisdictions in which they may be subject to tax.

8.1 Taxation of the Company

The Directors have been advised that on the basis that the Company is Resident in Ireland for tax purposes the taxation of the Company and the Shareholders is as set out below.

Residence of Company

The Company will be regarded as Resident in Ireland for tax purposes if its central and effective management and control is exercised in Ireland. The Directors of the Company will make every effort to ensure that the business of the Company will be conducted in such a manner as to ensure that it is Resident in Ireland for tax purposes.

Exemption from tax on income and gains

As an Investment Undertaking, the Company is not chargeable to Irish tax on income or gains arising to the Company save as described below in connection with gains arising on chargeable events.

Tax on chargeable events

Tax can arise for the Company on the happening of a "chargeable event" in relation to the Company. A chargeable event in relation to the Company includes the making of any payment on Shares to a Shareholder by the Company in respect of any distribution, encashment, redemption, repurchase, appropriation or cancellation of Shares of a Shareholder by the Company, the transfer of Shares by a Shareholder or the ending of a Relevant Period with respect to Shares held by a Shareholder.

A chargeable event does not include;

- (a) an exchange by a Shareholder, effected by way of an arm's length bargain where no payment is made to the Shareholder, of Shares in the Company for other Shares in the Company;
- (b) an exchange by a Shareholder, effected by way of an arm's length bargain where no payment is made to the Shareholder, of Shares representing one sub-fund for another sub-fund of the Company;

- (c) any transactions (which might otherwise be a chargeable event) in relation to Shares held in a Recognised Clearing System;
- (d) a transfer by a Shareholder of the entitlement to a Share where the transfer is between spouses or civil partners and former spouses or civil partners, subject to certain conditions; or
- (e) a cancellation of Shares arising on a “scheme of reconstruction or amalgamation” (within the meaning of section 739H(1)) of the Taxes Act) or a “scheme of amalgamation” (within the meaning of 739HA(1) of the Taxes Act) of the Company or other Investment Undertaking(s), subject to certain conditions being fulfilled.

A chargeable event will not give rise to an obligation for the Company to account for tax if:

- (a) the chargeable event occurs solely on account of an exchange of Shares arising on a scheme of amalgamation within the meaning of section 739D (8C) of the Taxes Act, subject to certain conditions being fulfilled;
- (b) the chargeable event occurs solely on account of an exchange of Shares arising on a scheme of migration and amalgamation within the meaning of section 739D (8D) of the Taxes Act, subject to certain conditions being fulfilled;
- (c) the chargeable event occurs solely on account of a scheme of migration within the meaning of section 739D (8E) of the Taxes Act, subject to certain conditions being fulfilled;
- (d) the chargeable events occurs in respect of a Shareholder who is
 - (i) an Exempt Non-Resident Investor; or
 - (ii) an Exempt Irish Investor
 at the time of the chargeable event;
- (e) the chargeable event is the ending of a Relevant Period and:-
 - (i) immediately before the chargeable event the value of the number of Shares in the Fund, in respect of which any gains arising would be treated as arising to the Company, on the happening of a chargeable event is less than 10% of the value of the total number of Shares in the Fund at that time; and
 - (ii) the Company has made an election, in writing, to the Revenue Commissioners that it will make in respect of each year of assessment a statement (including where it is the case, a statement with a nil amount) to the Revenue Commissioners in electronic format approved by them, on or before 31 March in the year following the year of assessment, which specifies in respect of each Shareholder;
 - (a) the name and address of the Shareholder;
 - (b) the value at the end of the year of assessment of the Shares to which the Shareholder is entitled at that time; and
 - (c) such other information as the Revenue Commissioners may require.

The Company is obliged to notify the Shareholders concerned, in writing, if such an election has been made. Where a Shareholder receives such a notification, that Shareholder is deemed to be a chargeable person for the purposes of sections 951 and 1084 of the Taxes Act and is required to prepare and deliver to the Revenue Commissioners a return of income on or before the specified return date for that chargeable period. The return of income shall include the following details:-

- (a) the name and address of the Company; and
- (b) the gains arising on the chargeable event.

Where none of the relieving provisions outlined above have application, the Company is liable to account for Irish tax on gains arising on chargeable events as follows:

- (a) where the chargeable event relates to a unit held by a Shareholder that is a company and that company has made a declaration to the Company that it is a company and that declaration contains the Irish corporation tax reference number of the company, at a rate of 25%;
- (b) where (a) above does not apply and where payments are made annually or at more frequent intervals, at a rate of 41%;

To the extent that any tax is paid on a gain arising on a chargeable event that occurs solely as a consequence of the ending of a Relevant Period, such tax will be allowed as a credit or paid by the Company to the Shareholder on the happening of a subsequent chargeable event in connection with the relevant Shares in accordance with the provisions of section 739E of the Taxes Act.

If the Company becomes liable to account for tax if a chargeable event occurs, the Company shall be entitled to deduct from the payment arising on a chargeable event an amount equal to the appropriate tax and/or where applicable (including circumstances where no actual payment is made to a Shareholder, for example upon the ending of a Relevant Period), to appropriate or cancel such number of Shares held by the Shareholder or the beneficial owner of the Shares as are required to meet the amount of tax payable by that Shareholder.

The relevant Shareholder shall indemnify and keep the Company indemnified against loss arising to the Company by reason of the Company becoming liable to account for tax on the happening of a chargeable event if no such deduction, appropriation or cancellation has been made.

Please see the “Taxation of Shareholders” section below dealing with the tax consequences for the Shareholders of chargeable events in respect of:-

- (a) Shareholders who are neither Resident in Ireland nor Ordinarily Resident in Ireland; and
- (b) Shareholders who are either Resident in Ireland or Ordinarily Resident in Ireland.

Dividend Withholding Tax

Dividends received by the Company from companies that are Resident in Ireland may be subject to Irish dividend withholding tax, the current rate of which is set out in Annex II hereto. However, as an Investment Undertaking, the Company can make a declaration to the payer of such dividend in a prescribed form so as to enjoy exemption from this withholding tax.

As an Investment Undertaking, the Company is not required to deduct dividend withholding tax on dividend payments to Shareholders.

Dividends received by the Company on shares issued by companies that are not Resident in Ireland may be subject to foreign dividend withholding tax. Although the Directors of the Company will make every effort to ensure that the business of the Company will be conducted in such a manner as to ensure that it is Resident in Ireland for tax purposes and the Company may therefore be treated as a resident of Ireland for the purposes of certain double taxation treaties to which Ireland is a party, there can be no assurance that treaty benefits will be granted to the Company so as to exempt or relieve foreign tax.

If the position changes in the future and the application of a lower rate results in a repayment to the Company the Net Asset Value will not be re-stated and the benefit will be allocated to the existing Shareholders rateably at the time of the repayment.

Stamp Duty

As an Investment Undertaking, no liability in respect of Irish stamp duty will arise in respect of the issue, redemption, sale, conversion, transfer or reissue of Shares in the Company. Where any subscription for or redemption of Shares is satisfied by the in specie transfer of Irish securities or other Irish property, Irish stamp duty may arise on the transfer of such securities or property.

Generally, no Irish stamp duty will be payable by the Company on the conveyance or transfer of stock or marketable securities provided that the stock or marketable securities in question have not been issued by a company incorporated in Ireland and provided that the conveyance or transfer does not relate to any immovable property situated in Ireland or any right over or interest in such property or to any stocks or marketable securities of a company (other than a company which is an Investment Undertaking or a Qualifying Company) which is incorporated in Ireland.

8.2 Taxation of the Shareholders

Capital Acquisitions Tax

A disposition of Shares may be subject to Irish capital acquisitions tax. However, as the Company is an Investment Undertaking, a disposition of Shares by a Shareholder is not liable to capital acquisitions tax provided that:

- (a) at the date of the gift or inheritance, the donee or successor is neither domiciled nor ordinarily resident in Ireland for capital acquisitions tax purposes;
- (b) at the date of the disposition, either the Shareholder disposing of the Shares is neither domiciled nor ordinarily resident in Ireland for capital acquisitions tax purposes or the disposition is not subject to Irish law; and
- (c) the Shares are comprised in the gift or inheritance at the date of such gift or inheritance and at the valuation date.

A non-Irish domiciled donee or disponent will be treated as not resident or ordinarily resident in Ireland for the purpose of capital acquisitions tax at the relevant date unless that person has been Resident in Ireland for 5 consecutive years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment in which the date of the gift or inheritance falls and that person is either Resident in Ireland or Ordinarily Resident in Ireland on that date.

Shareholders who are neither Resident in Ireland nor Ordinarily Resident in Ireland

The Company will not have to deduct tax on the occasion of a chargeable event in respect of a Shareholder that is an Exempt Non-Resident Investor.

To the extent that a Shareholder is acting as an Intermediary on behalf of persons who are neither Resident in Ireland nor Ordinarily Resident in Ireland, no tax will have to be deducted by the Company on the occasion of a chargeable event provided that the Intermediary has made a Relevant Declaration that he/she is acting on behalf of such persons and the Company is not in possession of any information which would reasonably suggest that the information contained therein is no longer materially correct.

Shareholders who are Exempt Non-Resident Investors will not generally be liable to Irish tax in respect of income from their Shares and gains made on the disposal of their Shares. However, a corporate Shareholder that holds Shares in connection with a trading branch or agency of that Shareholder in Ireland may be liable to Irish corporation tax on income from their Shares or gains made on disposals of the Shares.

Where tax is withheld by the Company on the basis that no Relevant Declaration has been filed with the Company by the Shareholder, Irish legislation does not provide for a refund of tax to a Shareholder other than in the following circumstances:

- (a) where the Company, within one year of the making of the return, obtains the Relevant Declaration and can prove to the satisfaction of the Revenue Commissioners that it is just and reasonable for such tax which has been paid, to be repaid to the Company; or
- (b) where a claim is made for a refund of Irish tax under section 189, 189A and 192 of the Taxes Act (relieving provisions relating to incapacitated persons, trusts in relation thereto and persons incapacitated as a result of drugs containing thalidomide).

Shareholders who are Resident in Ireland or Ordinarily Resident in Ireland

Exempt Irish Investors

The Company will not have to deduct tax on the occasion of a chargeable event in respect of a Shareholder that is an Exempt Irish Investor (provided that the Company is not in possession of any information that would reasonably suggest that the information contained in the Relevant Declaration provided by that Exempt Irish Investor is no longer materially correct).

Shareholders who are Exempt Irish Investors will not be subject to Irish tax on income from their Shares or gains made on the disposal of their Shares.

Courts Service

Additionally, where Shares are held by the Courts Service no tax is deducted by the Company on payments made to the Courts Service. The Courts Service will be required to operate the tax on payments to it by the Company when they allocate those payments to the beneficial owners.

Investors who are neither Exempt Non-Resident Investors nor Exempt Irish Investors

The Company will have to deduct tax on the occasion of a chargeable event in respect of a Shareholder that is neither an Exempt Non-Resident Investor nor an Exempt Irish Investor.

Where a Shareholder receives a payment from which appropriate tax has been deducted and that payment is correctly included in that Shareholder's tax return, no further tax is due.

Where a Shareholder is not a corporate body, is Resident in Ireland and receives a payment in respect of Shares from which tax has not been deducted, the income arising will be taxable at a rate of 41 per cent provided it is correctly included in that Shareholder's tax return.

Where a Shareholder is not a corporate body, is not Resident in Ireland but is Ordinarily Resident in Ireland and receives a payment in respect of Shares from which tax has not been deducted the income arising may be taxable, and if so, at a rate of 41 per cent provided it is correctly included in that Shareholder's tax return.

Where a Shareholder is a corporate body that is Resident in Ireland and receives a payment in respect of Shares from which tax has not been deducted the income arising will generally be taxable at a rate of 25 per cent.

However,

- (a) where a Shareholder earns the income in the course of carrying on a trade in Ireland the Shareholder will be taxable on such income or gains as part of that trade, currently at a rate of 12.5 per cent with a set-off against that Shareholder's corporation tax liability for any tax deducted by the Company; and
- (b) where a Shareholder earns the income in the course of carrying on its business as a Qualifying Company the Shareholder will be taxable on such income as part of that business, currently at a rate of 25 per cent with a set-off against that Shareholder's corporation tax liability for any tax deducted by the Company.

Where a currency gain is made by a Shareholder on the disposal of his/her Shares, such Shareholder may be liable to capital gains tax in the year of assessment in which the Shares are disposed.

8.3 Shareholder Reporting

The Company is required to provide certain information to the Revenue Commissioners in accordance with section 891C of the Taxes Act and the Return of Values (Investment Undertakings) Regulations 2013 in relation to Shareholders other than "excepted unitholders" within the meaning of the relevant Regulations ("Excepted Shareholders").

The information to be provided to the Revenue Commissioners is in relation only to Shareholders other than Excepted Shareholders and includes:

- (a) the name, registered address, contact details and tax reference number of the Company;
- (b) the name, address, and date of birth (if applicable) of Shareholders other than Excepted Shareholders;
- (c) a tax reference number for all Shareholders other than Excepted Shareholders; and
- (d) the investment number and the value of the investment held by Shareholders other than Excepted Shareholders.

Exempt Irish Investors and Exempt Non-Resident Investors would be Excepted Shareholders for this purpose.

8.4 Automatic Exchange of Information for Tax Purposes

Council Directive 2011/16/EU on Administrative Cooperation in the field of Taxation (as amended by Council Directive 2014/107/EU) (“DAC2”) provides for the implementation among Member States (and certain third countries that have entered into information exchange agreements) of the automatic exchange of information in respect of various categories of income and capital and broadly encompasses the regime known as the Common Reporting Standard (“CRS”) proposed by the OECD as a new global standard for the automatic exchange of information between tax authorities in participating jurisdictions.

Under the CRS, governments of participating jurisdictions (currently more than 100 jurisdictions) are required to collect detailed information to be shared with other jurisdictions annually.

CRS is implemented in Ireland pursuant to the Returns of Certain Information by Reporting Financial Institutions Regulations 2015, S.I. 583 of 2015, made under section 891F of the Taxes Act.

DAC2 is implemented in Ireland pursuant to the Mandatory Automatic Exchange of Information in the Field of Taxation Regulations of 2015, S.I. No. 609 of 2015 made under section 891G of the Taxes Act.

Pursuant to these Regulations, the Company will be required to obtain and report to the Revenue Commissioners annually certain financial account and other information for all non-Irish and non-US new and existing accountholders in respect of their Shares. The returns must be submitted by 30 June annually. The information will include amongst other things, details of the name, address, taxpayer identification number (“TIN”), place of residence and, in the case of accountholders who are individuals, the date and place of birth, together with details relating to payments made to accountholders and their holdings. This information may be shared with tax authorities in other Member States (and in certain third countries subject to the terms of Information Exchange Agreements entered into with those countries) and jurisdictions which implement the CRS.

8.5 FATCA Implementation in Ireland

The FATCA provisions of the US Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act were enacted to identify US persons either directly investing outside the US or indirectly earning income inside or outside the US by using foreign entities.

The obligations of Irish financial institutions under FATCA are covered by the provisions of the Ireland/US Intergovernmental Agreement (“IGA”) (signed in December 2012) and the Financial Accounts Reporting (United States of America) Regulations 2014, as amended (the “Regulations”). Under the IGA and the Regulations any Irish financial institutions as defined under the IGA are required to report annually to the Revenue Commissioners details on its US account holders including the name, address and TIN and certain other details. The Company, in conjunction with assistance from its service providers where necessary, will endeavour to ensure that it satisfies any obligations imposed on it under the IGA and the Regulations.

The Company’s ability to satisfy its obligations under the IGA will depend on each Shareholder in the Company, providing the Company with any information, including information concerning the direct or indirect owners of such Shareholders, that the Company determines is necessary to satisfy such obligations. Each Shareholder will agree in its application form to provide such information upon request from the Company. If the Company fails to satisfy its obligations under the IGA and the Regulations, it may, in certain circumstances, be treated as a Non-participating Financial Institution by the US Tax Authorities and therefore subject to a 30% withholding on its US source income and any proceeds from the sale of property that could give rise to US source income. Shareholders are encouraged to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the possible implications of FATCA on their interest in the Company.

9. GENERAL

9.1 Incorporation and Share Capital

At the date hereof the authorised share capital of the Company is 100,000,000,000 Shares of no par value and 2 Subscriber Shares of €1 each. The Subscriber Shares do not entitle the holders to any dividend and on a winding up entitle the holder to receive the amount paid up thereon but not otherwise to participate in the assets of the Company.

The Company may by ordinary resolution of all Shareholders increase its authorised share capital, consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount or sub-divide its shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount. The Company may, by special resolution of all Shareholders, reduce its issued share capital.

9.2 The Funds

The proceeds from the issue of Shares shall be applied in the books of the Company to the relevant Fund and shall be used in the acquisition on behalf of the relevant Fund of assets in which the Fund may invest. The records and accounts of each Fund shall be maintained separately.

The assets of each Fund shall belong exclusively to that Fund, shall be recorded in the books and records maintained for the Fund as being held for that Fund and separately from the assets of other Funds and shall not be used to discharge directly or indirectly the liabilities of or claims against any other Fund and shall not be available for any such purpose. The Directors also reserve the right to redesignate any Class of Shares from time to time, provided that Shareholders in that Class of Share shall first have been notified by the Company that the Shares will be redesignated and shall have been given the opportunity to have their Shares redeemed by the Company, except that this requirement shall not apply where the Directors redesignate Shares in issue in order to facilitate the creation of an additional Class of Share. In the event that the Directors transfer any asset to and from any Fund they shall advise Shareholders of any such transfer in the next succeeding annual report to Shareholders.

Where any Fund (or Class of Shares in a Fund) is distributing in nature, each of the Shares in a Fund (or any Class thereof) entitles the Shareholder to participate equally on a pro rata basis in the dividends and net assets of the Company, save in the case of dividends declared prior to becoming a Shareholder.

Each of the Shares entitles the holder to attend and vote at meetings of the Company. No Class of Shares confers on the holder thereof any preferential or pre-emptive rights or any rights to participate in the profits and dividends of any other Class of Shares or any voting rights in relation to matters relating solely to any other Class of Shares.

Any resolution to alter the rights of the Shares requires the approval of three quarters of the holders of the Shares (or where relevant, the particular Class thereof) in writing or else represented or present and voting at a general meeting duly convened in accordance with the Articles.

9.3 Meetings and Reports

Holders of Shares are entitled to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company. The Annual General Meeting will normally be held in Ireland within six months of the end of the financial year of the Company. Other general meetings may be held at such time and place as the Directors may determine.

Each financial period of the Company ends on 31 March in each year. The first annual report shall be published in respect of the period ending 31 March 2009. Copies of the annual report containing: (i) the audited financial statements of the Company in respect of the preceding financial year; (ii) any changes to the maximum level of leverage which the AIFM may employ on behalf of the Company; (iii) any right to the reuse of collateral or any guarantee granted under the leveraging arrangements; and (iv) the total amount of leverage employed by the Company, will normally be sent at least 21 days prior to the Annual General Meeting to the registered address of each holder of registered Shares.

Annual accounts will be submitted to the Central Bank within six months of the end of the financial period to which it relates.

On a show of hands, every holder of Shares who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote and, on a poll, every holder of Shares who is present in person or by proxy shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each Share held by him.

9.4 Winding-Up

The Company may be wound up by a special resolution of the Company passed at a general meeting of the Company. A special resolution requires at least 75% of the votes cast at the meeting to be voted in favour of the resolution in question. The winding up will be governed by the applicable provisions of the Act. The assets available for distribution among the holders of the Shares will be distributed in a winding up in accordance with their respective interests in the respective Funds. The Liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution, divide among the Shareholders in specie the whole of any part of the assets of the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, if the special resolution referred to above is passed, each Shareholder is entitled to elect on winding-up whether or not he wishes to receive a distribution in specie or a distribution in cash. However, in the absence of a Shareholder electing to receive a distribution in specie on winding-up, such Shareholder shall receive his relevant distribution in cash in accordance with his respective interests in the relevant Funds.

- the company or a related company (as described in section 23A of the Taxes Act) carries on a trade in Ireland, and either the company is ultimately controlled by persons resident in EU member states or, resident in territories with which Ireland has a double taxation treaty (a “taxation treaty territory”), and the company is not ultimately controlled by persons who are not so resident, or the principal class of shares of the company or a related company is substantially and regularly traded on one or more recognised stock exchanges in the EU or in a taxation treaty territory; or
- pursuant to the terms of a double taxation treaty between Ireland and another territory, a company is regarded as a resident of a territory other than Ireland and as not resident of Ireland.

It should be noted that the determination of a company's residence for tax purposes can be complex in certain cases and declarants are referred to the specific legislative provisions which are contained in section 23A of the Taxes Act.

Trust

A trust will be Resident in Ireland and Ordinarily Resident in Ireland for the purposes of Irish capital gains tax unless the general administration of the trust is ordinarily carried on outside Ireland and the trustees (being a single and continuing body of persons) or a majority of them for the time being are not Resident in Ireland or Ordinarily Resident in Ireland.

DEFINITIONS

The following definitions apply throughout this Leaflet unless the context requires otherwise:

“Investment Fund” means a UCITS or an AIF in which the Fund may invest in accordance with the Central Bank’s guidance.

INTRODUCTION

Metzler China Equity RMB Fund (the “Fund”) is a sub-fund of Metzler Fund Solutions p.l.c., an umbrella-type investment company with segregated liability between sub-funds with variable capital incorporated under Part 24 of the Companies Act 2014. A description of Metzler Fund Solutions p.l.c., which is a qualifying investor alternative investment fund, is contained in the Prospectus. This Leaflet forms part of and should be read in the context of and in conjunction with the Prospectus.

The Fund provides investors with direct access to the capital markets of the People’s Republic of China (“PRC”) and thus also to the Chinese currency, renminbi (“RMB”). The assets of the Fund will be allocated primarily to Chinese equities. However, depending on market conditions opportunistic investments in Chinese fixed income instruments and/or Chinese money market instruments and Chinese money market funds may also be permitted.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term appreciation.

Investment Policy

The investment objective will be obtained by investing predominantly in A-Shares of Chinese companies, denominated in RMB listed on the Shanghai or Shenzhen stock exchange (“China A-Shares”).

The Fund also has the ability to invest in equities and equity related securities (including warrants ADRs and GDRs) of issuers located in China and/or where the ultimate risk attaching to the securities reposes or is determined by reference to events in China, that are listed or traded on a regulated market.

It is the intention that at least 51% of the Fund’s net assets will be invested in equities listed on a regulated market.

The Fund may invest no more than 10% of its net assets in shares issued by the same body provided that the total value of shares held in the issuing bodies in each of which it invests more than 5% is less than 40%. For the avoidance of doubt, group companies (with the exception of wholly owned subsidiaries) shall not be regarded as a single issuer for the purposes of this restriction.

Furthermore, the Fund may invest in Chinese fixed and floating rate, government and corporate bonds and debentures each having an Investment Grade or Equivalent Rating. It is not intended that investment in Chinese government and corporate bonds and debentures will form a significant part of the Investment Manager’s investment portfolio. The Fund may also invest in Chinese money market instruments and Chinese money market funds being money market instruments issued by Chinese issuers and Chinese domiciled money market funds.

The Fund can also invest up to 10% of NAV in other Investment Funds established in OECD member states, which may be open or closed-ended funds, including for the avoidance of doubt, exchange traded funds. The investment policy of such Investment Funds will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund. The maximum level of management fees that may be charged to the Investment Fund in which the Fund invests is 1.5 % of net assets and the Fund will not invest in Investment Funds which charge a front or back end load.

The Fund utilises both Stock Connect and the qualified foreign institutional investor (QFII) program to invest in China-A Shares.

The aim of Stock Connect (both Shanghai – Hong Kong Stock Connect and Shenzhen - Hong Kong Stock Connect) is to achieve mutual stock market access between the PRC and Hong Kong. The Shanghai – Hong Kong Stock Connect is a cross-boundary investment channel that connects the Shanghai Stock Exchange and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the Shenzhen - Hong Kong Stock Connect connects the Shenzhen Stock Exchange and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

The QFII program is subject to a maximum quota in respect of aggregate investment in China A-Shares (the “Quota”) which is imposed by the Chinese State Administration of Foreign Exchange.

At the discretion of the Investment Manager, the Fund may also employ exchange traded equity future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has an equity index or an individual equity as its underlying) to hedge or achieve exposure to equity markets consistent with its investment policy and exchange traded currency futures and/or options contracts and/or over the counter currency forward contracts (i.e., contracts which have a currency as their underlying) to hedge or achieve exposure to currencies.

All investments must be listed or traded on a regulated market. Investments in warrants shall not exceed 5% of the Fund’s assets.

It is the intention of the Fund to adhere to the investment limits referred to above as far as possible. However, market circumstances or developments within the Fund (e.g., Fund start up/closure periods or large redemptions from the Fund) may lead to temporary deviations from this policy.

At all times, the Investment Manager shall observe the principle of spreading investment risk in accordance with Part 24 of the Companies Act 2014.

Borrowing and Leverage Policy

It is prohibited for the Fund to borrow in the PRC. The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund’s cash account, held outside the PRC, goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Investment Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement). However, it is not anticipated that the Fund will borrow more than 10% of the Net Asset Value at any one time.

AIFMD defines leverage as meaning any method by which the exposure of the Fund is increased whether through leverage embedded in derivative positions or borrowing of cash or securities or by any other means. Accordingly, the Fund may utilise leverage through the use of the financial derivative instruments and the use of borrowing, as described above.

The leverage of the Fund shall be expressed as the ratio between the exposure of the Fund and its Net Asset Value. The exposure of the Fund shall be the sum of the absolute values of all positions, and shall be calculated in accordance with the gross and commitment methods, as follows:

(i) Gross method

With this method, exposure is calculated as the sum of the absolute values of all positions held at any one time, including securities, borrowing, long and short derivative positions (with no netting or hedging arrangements applied), and excluding any cash and cash equivalent positions held in the base currency of the Fund, as outlined in the following formula:

$$\text{Leverage} = \frac{\begin{array}{l} \text{Securities} \\ + \text{ Derivatives} \\ + \text{ Borrowings} \\ - \text{ Cash \& Cash equivalents (held base currency of Fund)} \end{array}}{\text{NAV}}$$

Using this method, the average level of leverage of the Fund is not anticipated to exceed 110% of Net Asset Value (i.e., 10% in excess of Net Asset Value). Under extreme market conditions, the leverage of the Fund may increase up to a maximum of 200% of Net Asset Value (i.e., 100% in excess of Net Asset Value).

(ii) Commitment method

With this method, exposure is calculated as the sum of the absolute values of all positions held at any one time, including securities, borrowing, and long and short derivative positions with netting and hedging arrangements applied, as outlined in the following formula:

$$\text{Leverage} = \frac{\begin{array}{l} \text{Securities} \\ + \text{Net risk from Derivatives (after Netting / Hedging)} \\ + \text{Borrowings} \end{array}}{\text{NAV}}$$

Using this method, the average level of leverage of the Fund is not anticipated to exceed 105% of Net Asset Value (i.e., 5% in excess of Net Asset Value). Under extreme market conditions, the leverage of the Fund may increase up to a maximum of 150% of Net Asset Value (i.e., 50% in excess of Net Asset Value).

Change in Investment Objective or Policy

Any material change in investment policy or any change in investment objective will be subject to the prior approval of Shareholders evidenced either by a majority vote at a meeting of Shareholders of the Fund or by the written consent of all of the Shareholders. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of the Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Company to the Shareholders to enable the Shareholders to redeem their Shares prior to the implementation of the change.

RISK FACTORS

Investors should refer to section 1.8 of the Prospectus for a summary of the risk factors. In addition, the following risk factors may be applicable to this Fund.

An investment in the Fund involves a high degree of risk. There can be no assurance that the Fund’s objective will be achieved or that there will be any return of capital. The following considerations are among those that should be carefully evaluated before making an investment in the Fund.

GENERAL

The Fund will invest directly or indirectly in equity and debt obligations and other assets that involve substantial inherent risks. There can be no assurance that the equity or debt obligations and other instruments purchased by the Fund will in fact increase in value or that the Fund will not incur significant losses. All investors should only act in reliance on their own tax, legal and financial advisors and not on any advice or recommendation of the Investment Manager.

China A-Shares Market

Investing in the securities markets in the PRC is subject to the risks of investing in emerging markets generally and the risks specific to the PRC market. For more than 50 years, the central government of the PRC has adopted a planned economic system. Since 1978, the PRC government has implemented economic reform measures which emphasise decentralisation and the utilisation of market forces in the development of the PRC economy. Such reforms have resulted in significant economic growth and social progress. Many of the PRC economic reforms are unprecedented or experimental and are subject to adjustment and modification, and such adjustment and modification may not always have a positive effect on foreign investment in joint stock companies in the PRC or in listed securities such as China A-Shares.

The choice of China A-Shares issues which may be available to the Fund may be limited as compared with the choice available in other markets. There may also be a lower level of liquidity in the PRC China A-Share market, which is relatively smaller in terms of both combined total market value and the number of China A-Shares which are available for investment as compare with other markets. This could potentially lead to severe price volatility. The national regulatory and legal framework for capital markets and joint stock companies in the PRC are still developing when compared with those of developed countries. Currently, joint stock companies with listed China A-Shares are undergoing split-share structure reform to convert state owned shares or legal person shares into transferable shares with the intention to increase liquidity of China A-Shares. However, the effects of such reform on the China A-Share market as a whole remain to be seen. PRC companies are required to follow PRC accounting standards and practice which, to a certain extent, follow international accounting standards. However, there may be significant differences between financial statements prepared by accountants following PRC accounting standards and practice and those prepared in accordance with international accounting standards. Both the Shanghai and Shenzhen securities markets are in the process of development and change. This may lead to trading volatility, difficulty in the settlement and recording of transactions and difficulty in interpreting and applying the relevant regulations. Investments in the PRC will be sensitive to any significant change in political, social or economic policy in the PRC. Such sensitivity may, for the reasons specified above, adversely affect the capital growth and thus the performance of these investments. The PRC government's control of currency conversion and future movements in exchange rates may adversely affect the operations and financial results of the companies invested in by the Fund. In light of the above mentioned factors, the price of China A-Shares may fall significantly in certain circumstances.

Risks associated with the QFII Regime

The Fund utilises the QFII quota of the Investment Manager to invest in the China A-Shares market. The Fund is subject to restrictions and requirements applicable to QFII investment including repatriation limits. Repatriation of investments in the PRC is subject to limitation and restrictions imposed by relevant PRC laws and regulations and may expose the Fund to higher liquidity risk.

The regulations around QFII are relatively new and the application and interpretation thereof is therefore relatively untested and there is no certainty as to how they will be applied by the PRC authorities.

If the net amount to be repatriated by the QFII holder for the account of the Fund on any occasion exceeds the equivalent amount of US$50 million, prior approval from the State Administration of Foreign Exchange is required. In this case payment of the redemption proceeds may be delayed and paid to investors after completion of the repatriation process.

The uncertainty and change of the laws and regulations in PRC may adversely impact the Fund. The QFII policy and rules are also subject to change potentially with retrospective effect.

Stock Connect Risk Factors

There are number of restrictions that apply to Stock Connect trading that could affect the Fund's investment and returns:

Suspension Risk - both the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong (SEHK) and Shanghai Stock Exchange (SSE) reserve the right to suspend trading if necessary for ensuring an orderly and fair market and managing risks prudently which could adversely affect the Fund's ability to access the PRC market.

Differences in Trading Day - investors should be aware that the Stock Connect will only operate on days when both PRC and Hong Kong markets are open for trading and when banks in both markets are open on the corresponding settlement days. The Fund may, therefore, be subject to a risk of price fluctuations in China A-Shares in respect of the period during which Stock Connect is not trading.

Clearing and Settlement Risk - the Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Limited (HKSCC) and China Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation Limited (ChinaClear) have established clearing links and each is a participant of each other to facilitate clearing and settlement of cross-boundary trades. ChinaClear has established a risk management framework and measures that are approved and supervised by the China Securities Regulatory Commission. The chances of ChinaClear default are considered to be remote. Should the remote event of ChinaClear default occur and ChinaClear be declared as a defaulter, HKSCC will in good faith, seek recovery of the outstanding stocks and monies from ChinaClear through available legal channels or through ChinaClear's liquidation. In that event, the Fund may suffer delay in the recovery process or may not be able to fully recover its losses from ChinaClear.

Regulatory Risk - the current regulations relating to Stock Connect are untested and there is no certainty as to how they will be applied. Moreover, the current regulations are subject to change. There can be no assurance that the Stock Connect will not be abolished. The Fund may be adversely affected as a result of these changes.

Legal/Beneficial Ownership - where shares are purchased through Stock Connect, the Fund would only have a contractual claim against HKSCC for the rights and interests in such shares. The Fund does not have any proprietary rights. Technically, as the PRC legal system does not recognise the concept of beneficial ownership, the PRC authorities recognise HKSCC as the legal owner of such shares and not the Fund. Because Stock Connect is in its early stages, additional developments are likely. It is unclear whether or how such developments may affect a Fund's investments or returns. Additionally, the application and interpretation of the laws and regulations of Hong Kong and the PRC are uncertain, as are the rules, policies and guidelines published or applied by relevant regulators and exchanges in respect of the Stock Connect program. These may have a negative impact on the Fund's investments and returns.

Operational Risk - the Stock Connect provides a new channel for investors from Hong Kong and overseas to access the PRC's stock market directly. Market participants are able to participate in this programme subject to meeting certain information technology capacity, risk management and other requirements as may be specified by the relevant exchange and/or clearing house. Market participants may need to address issues arising from these differences (as well as the fact that the securities regime and legal systems of the PRC and Hong Kong differ significantly) on an ongoing basis.

Front-end Monitoring Risk - PRC regulations require that before an investor sells any share, there should be sufficient shares in the account; otherwise SSE will reject the sell order concerned. SEHK will carry out pre-trade checking on China A-Shares sell orders of its participants (i.e. the stock brokers) to ensure there is no over-selling.

Concentration Risks

The Fund's investments are concentrated in one particular country (i.e. PRC). This may result in greater volatility than funds which comprise broad-based global investments.

No Market for Shares: Restrictions on Transferability: Limited Redemption Rights

There will be no secondary market for Shares of the Fund. Consequently, investors may be able to dispose of their Shares only by means of redemptions which are permitted only in the manner set out above. Given the illiquid nature of the Fund's investments, the Fund may not realise the full carrying value of an investment that is sold in order to meet a redemption request. The risk of any decline in the value of an investment in the Fund during the period following a minimum notice of withdrawal is borne by the investor.

Currency Risk

The Fund is denominated in Euro but holds assets denominated in RMB as such it is predominantly exposed to a currency risk if RMB positions have not been hedged. Any devaluation of RMB against the Euro would cause the value of the assets denominated in the foreign currency to fall. RMB is currently not freely convertible and is subject to exchange controls and restrictions. There is no guarantee that RMB will not depreciate. Given that the Fund has the ability to invest in China H-Shares denominated in Hong Kong Dollars, the Fund may also have a Euro/Hong Kong Dollar currency exposure.

Derivatives Risk

Investors should refer to "Derivatives Risk" in section 1.8 of the Prospectus.

TAXATION

Investors should refer to section 8 of the Prospectus for a summary of the main tax provisions.
